TOPIC Military Information from Letzling Heath  JUZ2607  EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED 25)  DATE OF CONTENT 27  DATE OBTAINED 27 January 1954  REFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  REMARKS  On 23 December 1953, the berrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstant. All guard details at the various camps were gubordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacent, On 2	COUNTRY	ApprovedS	suti Ratega a 2002/071: 7		810A003600510 ORMAYTON ORT NO	667GLALSCONIX 25.
PLACE OBTAINED  PLACE OBTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT  DATE OBTAINED  PREFERENCES  PAGES  I ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  REMARKS  On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstamt. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  1A  Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The order	TOPIC	Military In	formation from Let		OINT NO.
DATE OF CONTENT.  DATE OBTAINED  27 January 1954  REFERENCES  PAGES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  REMARKS  On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstamt. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan Occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.						3022607
ON 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Eurg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstamt. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacent. On 2 January 1954, sedan occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  1A   Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The sedan	EVALUATION_		PLACE OB	TAINED		25
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  REMARKS  On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstamt. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.					. 2	7 January 1954
COMMENT.  December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstant. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan cocupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The codes
COURCE  On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstamt. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan cocupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  A Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The codes		4
On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstamt. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan cocupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  A Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The codes					· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstant. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  A Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The anders	REMARKS
On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstant. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The anders						•
On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstamt. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The anders	······································
On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstamt. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The anders
On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstamt. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The anders	COURCE
was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstant. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.  Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The anders	WORCE.
southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The godon	1B	from Burg. A billeted at P subordinate t January 1954.	pied by a guard de colonel with his d lanken Forstamt. A o this colonel. Ca sedan A	etail of 20 to 3 dependents and s	O soldiers wheeveral other	officers were
	1A	southern sect	or of Letzling Hea	th are occupied	all camps in by guard det	the woods in the ails only. The sedan